

Polish children in the German education system

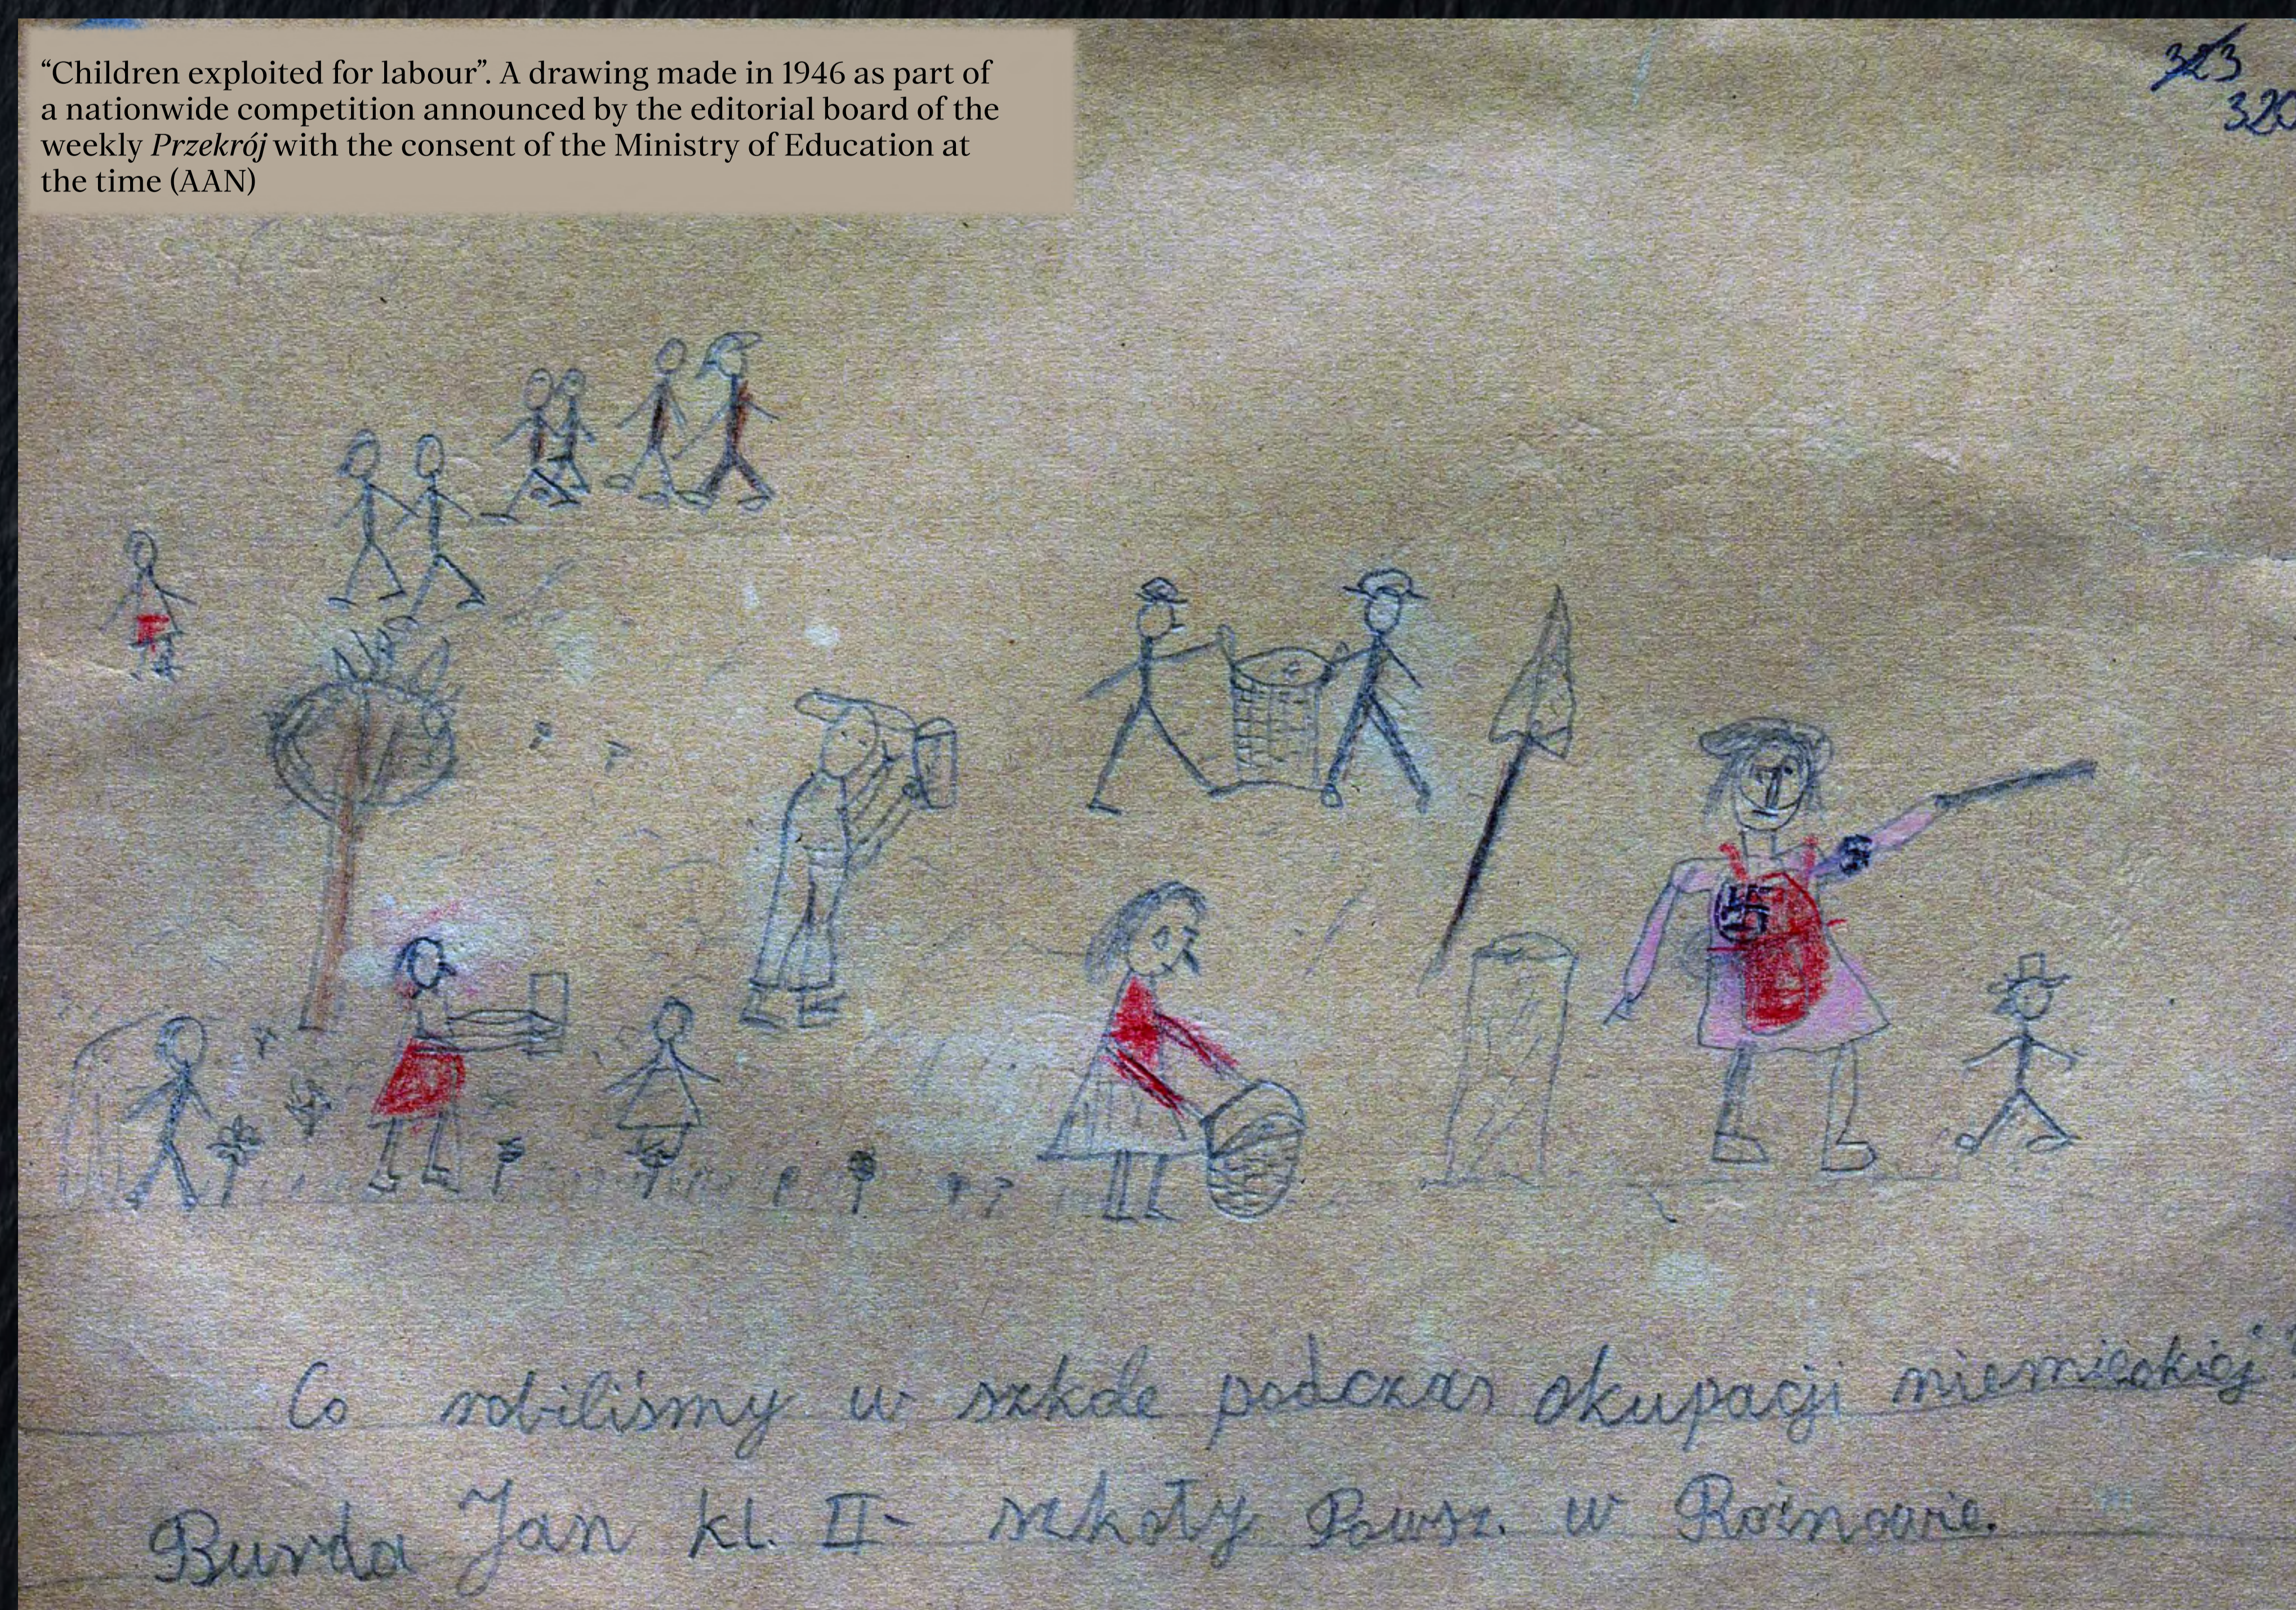

In the territories incorporated into the Reich, only children designated for Germanization were allowed to attend state primary schools (Volksschule). Children over the age of 14 were required to work. For those who worked on German farms, further education was practically impossible.

"Children exploited for labour". A drawing made in 1946 as part of a nationwide competition announced by the editorial board of the weekly Przekrój with the consent of the Ministry of Education at the time (AAN)

"Children exploited for labour". A drawing made in 1946 as part of a nationwide competition announced by the editorial board of the weekly Przekrój with the consent of the Ministry of Education at the time (AAN)

"Children exploited for labour". A drawing made in 1946 as part of a nationwide competition announced by the editorial board of the weekly Przekrój with the consent of the Ministry of Education at the time (AAN)